

Choose your Own Honeymoon Adventure with Go2Africa
New Concierge Subscription Service is the perfect planning tool

Cape Town, South Africa (February 2, 2022): Trying to decide between a safari or wine country for your honeymoon? Wondering how many days you need in Africa for the perfect getaway? Look no further than Go2Africa's new Concierge Subscription Service, *Africa on Tap* which gives travelers access to a specialist 24/7 to help you plan your trip and provide you with on the ground support throughout your honeymoon.

Whether you want to know which camp in Kenya will give you the best views of the Great Migration from your deck or how to get from Cape Town to the Okavango Delta via a microlighting stop in Victoria Falls, Go2Africa has you covered. This service will benefit honeymooners wishing to explore Africa and decide on the perfect itinerary as well as those who'd love to independently explore hidden gems across the continent.

For a monthly fee of $100, the service gives subscribers direct phone, Whatsapp, and email access to a team of award-winning Africa Safari Experts and concierges who will be available to give real-time advice on any African travel-related questions a traveler might have. Subscribers also get access to all of Go2Africa's preferred partnerships – and exclusive rates – with thousands of accommodation, activity, and logistics partners across Africa and the Indian Ocean, one booking made per month with a discount of at least 5%, and one free experience per year (spa, private game vehicle, hot air balloon ride, etc).

From providing true expert advice on where (and where not) to go when giving advice on the complex logistics that African travel can bring, or giving insider tips on lodges, activities, and restaurants,

Go2Africa is the ultimate travel support. Currently, consultations and phone calls with the team of Africa Safari Experts are restricted to clients who are planning on booking a whole trip, but subscribing to the Go2Africa Concierge Subscription Service Africa on Tap means you could have access to expert advice from a well-traveled local expert whenever you need it with just the click of a button.
